Taninwat Kaewpankan (Ice)
Frontend Developer & Product Thinker
Copenhagen, Denmark

I build products and the interfaces to ship them. Frontend developer by training, product thinker by instinct — I've led organizations, shipped full-stack products from scratch, and joined an early-stage AI startup as a partner with equity. I write clean React and TypeScript, think in user journeys, and know how to collaborate across teams to get things out the door.

Areas of expertise:

Technical: React | Next.js | TypeScript | JavaScript | HTML & CSS | TailwindCSS | Node.js | PostgreSQL | Supabase | REST APIs | Zustand | Vitest | Git & GitHub | CI/CD | Figma

Product & Leadership: Product Discovery | User Research | Agile/Scrum | Stakeholder Communication | Cross-functional Collaboration | Project Management (Google Certified)

Experience:

Frontend Developer → Partner (Equity)

Remote, Denmark

- Led a platform-wide UI/UX overhaul, translating user research and journey maps into a scalable design system using React and MUI
- Bridged design vision and technical constraints, contributing to the on-time delivery of four major feature integrations
- Built interactive prototypes and production interfaces for creative AI workflows, exploring non-linear alternatives to traditional timeline-based editing
- Developed dashboards to visualize user sentiment data, integrating multiple APIs to support product decisions
- Joined as intern; transitioned to equity partner with a signed shareholder agreement

Bevisly

Solo Builder & Founder

Copenhagen, Denmark

- Identified that traditional resumes enable hiring bias; designed and shipped a proof-over-resume platform where candidates demonstrate skills through real tasks
- Architected a multi-role system (Employer and Candidate) with Supabase row-level security — data isolation enforced at the database layer, not the application
- Built a Kanban-style talent board with real-time state updates to help employers track recruitment at a glance

Satoshi Standard

Aug 2025 - Sep 2025

Solo Build

Copenhagen, Denmark

- Reframed the Bitcoin pricing abstraction — the dashboard shows Satoshis instead of BTC, making purchasing power tangible for everyday items
- Built a real-time conversion engine using React and CoinGecko's API with fallback providers to handle rate

Curriculum Vitae

limits

- Wrote a full Vitest unit-test suite covering all price conversion logic

Millennial Consulting

Sep 2023 - May 2025

Head of Organization, Volunteer — promoted from Head of Operations

Copenhagen, Denmark

- Directed end-to-end project lifecycle for 25+ client engagements across 4 cycles, achieving 90%+ client satisfaction
 - Managed cross-functional coordination across recruitment, client relations, budget, and consulting firm partnerships to keep each cycle fully resourced
 - Introduced Agile/Scrum methodology alongside the existing waterfall process — a hybrid model adopted org-wide
 - Facilitated 10+ workshops in partnership with external consulting firms, supporting 75+ student participants in real-world consulting delivery
